

Teaching Challenged and Banned Books:

<sup>1</sup>Additional Resources for Teachers and Librarians

(compiled by Dr. Alyce Baker, Associate Professor of English at Lock Haven University, who can be reached at abaker4@lhup.edu or 570-484-2100)

Books

- Doyle, Robert. Banned Books Resource Guide. Chicago: American Library Association, 2014. Print.
- . Banned Books: Challenging Our Freedom to Read. 2014 ed. Chicago: American Library Association, 2014. Print.
- Fletcher-Spear, Kristin, and Kelly Tyler, eds. Intellectual Freedom for Teens: A Practical Guide for Young Adult and School Librarians. Chicago: American Library Association-ALA Editions, 2014. Print.
- Lent, ReLeah and Gloria Pipkin. Keep Them Reading: An Anti-Censorship Handbook for Educators. New York: Teachers College, 2012. Print.
- Scales, Pat. Teaching Banned Books: 12 Guides for Young Readers. Alpha, 2001.
- . Books under Fire: A Hit List of Banned and Challenged Children's Books. Chicago: American Library Association-ALA Editions, 2015. Print.

Articles

- National Council of Teachers of English James R. Squire Office of Policy Research. "Censorship Now: Revisiting The Student's Right to Read." The Council Chronicle 23.3 (2014): 17-19.
- Ryan, Cynthia. "Defending the Right to Read: A Modern Tale." The Council Chronicle 21.1 (2011): 19-21.
- Tigner-Rasanen, Mary. "Meeting a Censorship Challenge." The English Journal 90.3 (2001): 126-129.

Website

- "Missing: Find a Banned Book." American Library Association. American Library Association, n.d. Web. 22 September 2014. <<http://www.ala.org/bbooks/>>.

1 In addition to the Works Cited slide in the PowerPoint